

BILISKE INDUCTED INTO AUCTIONEER'S HALL OF FAME

Dennis Biliske was inducted into the North Dakota Auctioneer's Association Hall of Fame on Saturday, February 7th at the 63rd Annual NDAA convention held in Fargo, ND. Criteria for the award is based on honesty, high ethical standards, a successful auction business, contributions to the auction profession, service to the NDAA, involvement in community affairs & family.

Biliske started his auction career in 1985 by attending auction college in Mason City, IA while still a high school senior in Cavalier, ND.

Biliske has had an illustrious career, conducting well over 2000 auctions in 9 U.S. States; has been a managing partner in numerous Canadian auctions and was the lead auctioneer for Asia International Auctioneers in Subic Bay, Philippines for 7 years, conducting 49 auctions in southeast Asia.

Together with his wife Sue, Biliske now owns and operates Main Resource Equipment Auctions and Main Resource Land Sales with his business partner Allen Merrill in Grand Forks, ND.

In addition to those already in attendance, for the conference, Dennis was joined by several family members, co-workers past & present and friends from throughout the industry & region for the celebration.

When asked if there was anything he'd like to say, an emotional Biliske humbly said "This is an incredible honor that I will always cherish, but don't forget our next consignment auction at the Alerus Center is March 25th."
